

LEADERS OF TOMORROW YOUTH CENTER

Position Title: Arts Instructor

NOTE: THIS IS A CONTRACTUAL POSITION

LTYC's ideal Instructor will possess:

- 3 Years of age appropriate classroom teaching experience in applicable content area
- Bachelor's Degree/ Master's Degree in the content area preferred, MD Teaching Certification, or at least 30 completed college credits

Demonstrated competencies in the following areas are a must:

- Lesson Plan Development: Experience in developing and executing age appropriate lesson plans
- Behavior Management & Classroom Management: Ability to enforce 100% engagement in a classroom at all times and utilize behavior management strategies to set and maintain clear expectations
- Communication Skills: Strong possession of verbal and written skills and the ability to work collaboratively with students, colleagues and school administration
- Prior experience in establishing environments whereby creative art is explored, discovered, and observed
- A demonstrated track record of propelling student academic growth and mastery
- Commitment to ongoing professional development

All prospective candidates must complete/provide the following:

- Resume
- Prescreening questionnaire
- Cover letter explaining why their skills & experience best fits the position

Other Requirements:

- Candidates will be required to sign an independent contractor agreement
- Provide 3 professional references from a former supervisor. At least one must be from experience working with children.
- Provide CPR & First Aid certifications
- Provide proof of education and professional certifications (if applicable)
- Letter from Physician stating in Good Health (non communicable diseases, including TB)
- Background check from CJIS for state, federal and child care